

Challenge Course Facilitators

The Urban Park Rangers of the City of New York/Parks & Recreation seek athletic, outdoor recreation leaders and youth development outdoor educators to work as facilitators at an exciting new challenge course facility in Queens. Facilitate high- and low-ropes programs for a diverse community including youth, adults, and people with disabilities. Lead off-course programs focusing on team building, leadership, and group dynamics. Perform routine assembly, inspection and maintenance of challenge course.

We will train you, but we prefer you have experience using ropes, harnesses, belay systems and carabiners. Comfortable working at heights preferred. Experience coordinating and leading curricula-based youth and adult programs. B.A. preferred. Driver's License preferred. Ability to work evenings and weekends as needed.

Positions run from April - November.

Salary: $17.77/hr
